Subject : Contract No. RD-155

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to your letter 51022 of July 2, 1958, signed by [redacted] enclosing a copy of a letter from [redacted], which instructed you to mail future proposals to a name and address other than that of the Contracting Officer.

25X1

It is permissible for you to submit proposals for new work directly to the name and address stipulated in [redacted] letter. There must, however, be no mention in such correspondence of the subject contract. This would hold true also for any communications concerning technical problems which may arise in regard to projects confirmed under the subject contract.

25X1

All other matters concerning contractual problems will continue to be addressed to the Contracting Officer.

Very truly yours,
